

We want rules in place that serve the public, rather than private, interest and therefore oppose taking a vote that leads to further conglomeritization of the media.

We strongly urge that on June 2 you retain the current ownership rules."